

SCHOOL SUPPLIES

PROGRAM 2016

We would like every child to start the school year prepared with appropriate school supplies. With generous donor support, Summit County Children Services is able to provide basic school supplies in a new backpack to more than 1,600 needy children in agency care. Below is a list of items needed for the Summit County Children Services School Supplies Program.

YOUNGER STUDENTS

Large/block erasers	2-pocket folders	Crayons (24-pks)
Notebook paper (wide)	Antibacterial hand sanitizer	Lunch boxes or bags
Plastic school boxes	Black or blue pens	New backpacks
Washable markers	Boxes of tissues	Safety scissors
Zippered pencil pouches	Glue sticks (non-toxic)

For more information about the Summit County Children Services School Supplies Program, contact the Community Relations Department at (330)-996-1057 or (330) 379-1994, or visit summitkids.org.
