February 2023

Dear Friend of Summit County Children Services:

In celebration of the National Child Abuse Prevention Month (observed in April), Summit County Children Services (SCCS) will hold its 12th Annual Appreciation Breakfast on Friday, April 28, from 7:30-9 a.m. at St. George Family Center.

During this event, awards will be presented to several “Champions for Children” . . . those whose accomplishments have significantly contributed to the well-being of children and families throughout our community. Awards will also be presented to recognize the accomplishments of children and families who have been served by SCCS. We will have the opportunity to publicly thank and honor key organizations, agencies, businesses, civic groups, families, youth and individuals who, like SCCS, are committed to “helping keep children safe” in our community. Additionally, the Grand Prize Winner of the SCCS Poster/Slogan Creative Contest will be recognized.

We invite you to be a part of this celebration as a TABLE SPONSOR. NOTE: Seating is limited so reserve your table of eight (8) early. Reservations will be accepted on a first come, first serve basis. Your group’s name will be identified on a table placard and be given recognition in the event program. Please complete the enclosed form and return it with your check (made payable to Summit County Children Services) by Friday, April 14. NOTE: Individual ticket price is $25 per person.

Should you have questions or need more information, feel free to contact Sandy DeLuca at (330) 379-1994 or by e-mail at sandy.deluca@summitkids.org.

We look forward to you joining us at this event to celebrate this year’s “Champions for Children.”

Sincerely,

Cassandra Holtzmann, JD LPA
