Summit County Children Services' Traci Foley Promoted to Department Director

AKRON, OH – February 2020 – Traci Foley, MSW, LSW has recently been promoted to the Department Director of Placement Services.

Ms. Foley is a graduate from the University of Mount Union and The University of Akron with her master's degree in Social Work.

Ms. Foley began her career in the field of child welfare as an Intake Caseworker at Cuyahoga County Department of Children and Family Services and later was employed with Wayne County Children Services, where she assessed concerns of child abuse and neglect. More recently, she worked as the Social Service Administrator for Ashland County Job and Family Services where she oversaw both Child Protective Services and Adult Protective Services.

She joined Summit County Children Services (SCCS) in March 2017 as an Intake Supervisor and most recently served in the role of the Foster Home Support Unit Supervisor since March 2018. Ms. Foley is actively involved in leadership opportunities within the agency and the community.

In Ms. Foley's new role, she will oversee the agency foster homes, relative homes and placements as well as services for youth aging out of foster care. "I am excited and look forward to starting on this new journey as the Department Director of Placement Services. My goal is to make certain that our agency is providing the services needed to ensure that children are safe and cared for while in placement and that our providers are supported through strong partnerships," said Ms. Foley.
