The mission of the Child & Family Leadership Exchange is to promote excellence in leadership among Summit County professionals serving children and families. Participants in CFLE gain an in-depth understanding of the county's child and family services systems, expand their network of service delivery partners, and enhance their leadership skills. The program's hands-on approach to learning encourages communication among service providers and enhances the effectiveness of those leaders committed to strengthening family life in the community.

The CFLE program is administered by Summit County Children Services and oversight is provided by an Advisory Committee, including: Judge Linda Tucci Teodosio (Chair), Summit County Juvenile Court; Cassandra Holtzmann, Executive Director, Summit County Children Services, Aimee Wade, Executive Director, Summit County Alcohol, Drug Addiction and Mental Health Services Board (ADM Board); Terri Burns, Executive Director, Summit County Department of Job & Family Services; Joseph Iacano, Superintendent, Summit Educational Service Center; Carla Chapman, Chief Diversity Officer, Akron Public Schools; Judge Kelly McLaughlin, Summit County Domestic Relations Court, Chief Stephen L Mylett, Akron Police Department; Lisa Kamlowsky, Superintendent, Summit County Developmental Disabilities Board and Bennett Williams, Vice President-External Affairs, Akron Children's Hospital.
