Summit County Children Services is committed to Reunification

AKRON, OH – June 2020 – June is celebrated each year as National Reunification Month. Summit County Children Services (SCCS) believes that all children have the right to a safe and stable home. When a child must be removed from their home due to being unsafe, SCCS works diligently toward reunification as soon as possible.

Last year, eighty percent of children served by SCCS were reunified with family. "Our staff partner with families and the community to help the families we serve stay together" said Julie Barnes, Executive Director. "We celebrate the families who work hard to overcome obstacles in order for their children to safely remain or return home."
