

MEET THE TRAINER.

RONNA JOHNSON

Mrs. Johnson earned her Bachelor's of Science in Nursing from Kent State University in 1980 and became a Pediatric Nurse Practitioner in 1983. She has dedicated her career to supporting children with medical and developmental special needs, providing training and case management within the Child Welfare System since 1986. A foster and adoptive parent since 1994, she has received the OCWTP 2011 Rising Star Award and the OCWTP 2013 Linda Pope Award. Since 2017, she has offered recovery parenting education for mothers in recovery, helping them build confidence in caring for their children through the MOMS program.
